Won a championship with lebryan Jamie.. This is a highly underrated game mainly cause of the bad interface graphics. If you like basketball and Football Manager series, this is what you need. Deep simulation of basketball and a huge, but huge database. You must see the Tutorial video and read the manual in order to fully understand how to play. Unfortunately the interface is not very good but after you learn how to play it is impossible to stop!
I strongly recommend this game for sport manager fans.

En Español, ya que soy de Argentina, aprovechando que tenemos una buena camada de jugadores!

Creo que es un juego subestimado por los gráficos, la verdad, que si te gusta el basket y la serie de Football Manager, entenderás que es normal: una gran simulación de juegos y una base de datos enorme.

Recomiendo que vean el video del tutorial y el manual para entender como jugar; y si bien la interfaz no es la mejor, una vez que aprendes a jugar es difícil parar.

Recomiendo el juego a los fanáticos de los juegos de manager de deportes.. Liked the name, disliked the interface.. Horrible graphics, explanation is useless... If you have had a really good month at work, you've had a promotion, bought your wife\girlfriend a new purse, treated yourself to a new coat, pimped out your car with a new soundsystem and still have a few bucks to waste? Then go for it! But I think you might be investing better by just going to an ATM machine, getting the same amount, and then putting it into a random garbage bin (preferably a blue one tho).. It's just a buggy mess, with a really hard to learn UI. What they tried to do with the upgrade system was good, but its just done really poorly. While normally I love this sort of game - this feels hastily thrown together, and if you manage to get it working - it has some major elements missing, even once you get past the installation issues and bugs.

1) Time out functionality - that only works when there's a stoppage of play. When you have possession and want to stop the clock - you can't call a TO. Pointless - why do I want to stop it, when it's already stopped?

2) Inability to slide a player when making a substitution. If you attempt to bring in say a power forward, and slide your current PF to SF (a pretty common thing) - the fields black out. It's not possible - you need 2 stops of play to make that move, yet the CPU teams can do it.

3) The biggest deal breaker - inability to make trades. You can put someone up for "transfer" and get cash, and you can use that cash to buy players ... but you can't actually trade at all. In a sport manager game, that's pretty much a deal breaker.. Absolutely terrible, I knew it was gonna be bad but Jesus.. whats the key to save the game? i couldnt find it lol

It is not a game you would want at all.. First off,

Don't let the haters tell you this is a bad game. This is an awful game. Everytime you attempt to play a match, the game crashes. My hopes and dreams of becoming the top basketball manager in the world were crushed by this game, and now I never want to touch a basketball ever again.

Sincerely,

a man who's hopes and dreams were crushed by this game.. Highly confusing, unsure of what does what. The ingame tool tips are poor. Would be a fun game to run a tycoon of if it was better done.. This game is awful... DO NOT BUY. Whatever you hope it is, it is not.. This game is honestly terrible. I'm a huge fan of Tycoon and Strategy games, and this game is just a poorly planned, terribly executed, game... can I even call it a game?

It's just not good. The screenshots make it look engaging and deep, but there is no easing into this game. No tutorial, and the stats aren't very useful.

Pass on this game basketball and tycoon fans.. It isn't userfriendly enough in my opinion.
